

MUSIC AND DANCE FROM THE PHILIPPINES

with Kinding Sindaw

This December visit Jackson Heights Library for an afternoon of vibrant colors and uplifting music and dance. Performing artists Kinding Sindaw invite you to experience stories, songs and dances illuminating the rich and diverse heritage of the Philippines. These living traditions connect to Sanskrit, Malay, and Southeast Asian culture. Enjoy a performance of kulintang music, ritual and sultanate dances, silat martial arts and dance workshops. Experience the magical butterflies and mushrooms, and the dance of emotions. We hope to see you there!

FREE ADMISSION

Saturday, December 9, 3pm

JACKSON HEIGHTS

35-51 81 Street • 718-899-2500

7 to 82nd Street • Q29, Q32, Q33, Q49, Q66

Made possible by the Queens Public Library Foundation and the generous support of our individual donors.